Edward W. Neufville, III

Attorney + Olympian + Advocate

Edward W. Neufville, III, is the founder and principal of the Law Office of Edward W. Neufville, III, LLC. Mr. Neufville practices U.S. Immigration and Nationality Law and Transnational Law. Mr. Neufville, a person who stutters, is an experienced trial lawyer, skilled negotiator, and passionate advocate. He has argued before the United States Federal Courts, the Board of Immigration Appeals, and Immigration Courts across the United States. Mr. Neufville represents clients in complex immigration matters involving immigration fraud, terrorism and security related immigration issues, family immigration, worksite enforcement compliance, waivers of inadmissibility, immigration consequences of criminal convictions and citizenship. He has also represented clients under investigation or sanctioned by the United States Department of Treasury.

In addition to firm's immigration practice, Mr. Neufville serves foreign nationals and U.S. businesses, especially in matters relating to Sub-Saharan Africa, by providing general consultancies, and advice on the intersection of United States domestic law and international law or foreign law. With an expansive understanding of American and African legal and socio-cultural affairs, the office effectively provides solutions to concerns arising from the convergence of African and the Western legal policies.

EDUCATION

Mr. Neufville is a 1999 graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, and a 2003 graduate of the Washington and Lee University School of Law, Lexington, Virginia.

OLYMPIAN

Prior to becoming an attorney, Edward "Eddie" Neufville was an accomplished collegiate and international athlete. Edward W. Neufville is one of the University of North Carolina's greatest international competitors of all-time, having made Olympic and World Championship teams for his native Liberia. As a member of the 4x100-meter relay team, he competed at the 1996 Summer Olympics and the 1997 World Championships in Athletics, setting a Liberian national record on both occasions.

His time at Carolina included an All-America performance as a member of the 4x100 relay team that finished fourth at the 1999 NCAA Outdoor Championships. He still holds a top-five time in school history in the 60-meter hurdles.

In 2007, Edward W. Neufville was inducted into the University of North Carolina Track and Field Hall of Fame.

ABOUT US

The Law Office of Edward W. Neufville, III, LLC, is a full service U.S. Immigration and Nationality and Transnational law firm located in the Washington, D.C. suburbs of Silver Spring, Maryland. Since 2004, we have offered international organizations, non-profit entities, companies, and individuals a variety of services at our disposal to aid them in their search for immigration and international legal options.

Much of the firm's work has entailed handling complex immigration litigation matters before United States Federal Courts and Immigration Courts. Over the past years, our firm has played a leading role in advocating and changing current U.S. government policy towards the treatment of individuals seeking refuge and protection in the United States. At the Law Office of Edward W. Neufville, III, we strive to provide ethical, competent, diligent, and passionate representation that meets our clients' needs and interests.

We set ourselves apart from other law firms by constantly keeping abreast of the changes in immigration law, attending litigation and continuing legal education seminars and educating our clients about the complexities of their immigration cases. We strive to provide answers, not theories, to our clients' legal needs.

TESTIMONIALS

I was referred to Edward W. Neufville through my boyfriends friend. I called him to see if he can help with my boyfriends immigration case. We had a video zoom consultation and he was very informative and also very knowledgeable of the law. I can tell he cares and wants to help the most he can. If you need a immigration lawyer you should definitely give him a shot.

- Karen A.

If you are looking for a lawyer who is knowledgeable and hardworking and brave, then this is the guy for you. He knows his stuff, he does his research, and he comes prepared. I had a complicated case that had a very quick turnaround time, and he was the only lawyer who was brave enough to take the case. Even the so-called "best immigration lawyer" I was referred to refused to take my case. But Edward Neufville did. And he won. Thank you soooooooooo much.

- Vera E.

This is one of the best immigration law offices in the country!! My case was handled effectively, which made the whole process stress free. I couldn't ask for a better expertise.
